Transition

We had a very successful moving-up morning this week. All the children visited their new classrooms and met the staff who will be supporting them next year. If you have any questions about September, please contact the school, we will be happy to support.

Well done to all our merit winners this week!

	Merit 1	Merit 2	Values Merit
Reception	Liam for super effort in all activities, always putting up his hand to answer questions and giving 100%.	Dottie for excellent reading and writing, using her phonics knowledge brilliantly!	Bobbie-Lee for always offering to help to take care of our classroom to keep it clean and tidy.
Year 1	Emma for some super reading this week. Emma always tries her best and never gives up!	Levi for super team work in PE this week and encouraging others.	Rhea for being a good role model for others and following the Rivington Way at all times.
Year 2	Stanley for a super long sentence that made sense and used a variety of conjunctions.	Mackenzie for good mental maths this week.	Lily-Mae for being a lovely calming influence in our class.
Year 3	Hayden for always being focused on his work.	Evan for some super dissection work in our science lessons.	Eva for being a good friend to others in our school community.
Year 4	Ozzie for being patient and understanding with those around him.	Nevaeh H for making sensible and helpful suggestions this week.	Kayden for being helpful with carrying equipment in our PE lessons.
Year 5	Faye for great work this week, especially her effort with Reading Plus.	Eva for challenging herself to answer questions in maths and sharing great ideas.	Kean for always having a mature attitude towards his learning and being a role model to others.
Year 6	All of Y6 for a mature, hard working attitude while representing our school up at Cowley this week. They are showing that they are definitely ready for high school!
